Oakton Swim and Racquet Club

Meet the Board

Josh O'Brien, President: Josh and his wife Amy we have been residents of Oakton for over a decade and members of OSRC for the last few years. They have twin second-grade boys, who are enthusiastic members of the swim team. Josh has a background is in finance, where he helps manage portfolios for endowments, foundations, and pensions. He aims to leverage his financial experience in the Treasurer role to ensure the club's fiscal health and contribute to maintaining and improving the facilities and experiences as a hub for our friends and neighbors to enjoy.

Tommy Fransson, Vice President: Tommy and his wife are active, enthusiastic members of the club community, regularly participating in tennis, swimming, and social events. Since moving to the area, the OSRC has played a meaningful role in helping them connect with fellow residents and build lasting relationships within the community. With a strong background in finance and event planning, Tommy is committed to creating engaging activities that foster connection and ensure the club remains a fun, vibrant place for members of all ages.

Jenny Hammond, Secretary: Jenny and her family have lived in Oakton for several years and have loved being part of the OSRC community. She and her husband, Todd, have four children, three of whom have participated on the Otters swim and dive teams. The whole family enjoys the pickleball and tennis programs, and OSRC has become a special place to spend time together in the summer. Jenny worked in IT for 15 years prior to pursuing a career in education as a middle school math teacher. She looks forward to continuing to stay involved at OSRC, supporting its programs, and helping foster the strong sense of community that makes this club so special.

Deb Carroll, Treasurer: Deb has lived in Oakton since 1993 and has been a full-time member of OSRC for the past three years, after almost eight years as an August renter.

She's retired from Lockheed Martin, where she worked as a Systems Engineer, and hold a Master's degree in Systems Engineering from George Washington University. She is also Treasurer of the Oak Marr Courts Board of Directors.

Sharon Cotton, Operations Director: Sharon's family joined OSRC) n 2005. Their children, Sylvia and Reid, learned to swim and became active members of the swim team, where they formed life-long friendships. She has actively participated in various organizations, including Cub Scouts, Girl Scouts, Girls on the Run, Women Giving Back, and YMSL, and I have coached my children's sports teams through CYA/Vienna. Professionally, she has 25 years of experience in residential property management, overseeing communities and managing budgets, operations, and resident events.

Jeff Pfiffner, Chair, Swim/Dive: Jeff and his wife, Erin, have lived in Oakton since 2018 and have been members of OSRC since 2022. Their two children are active Otters on the swim team, and all four of us are regular participants in tennis classes throughout the summer. He is a senior leader at a global talent assessment firm and has spent more than 20 years in consulting, working with many of the world's largest organizations. Much of his career has focused on leading and developing teams, solving complex challenges, and bringing people together around shared goals.

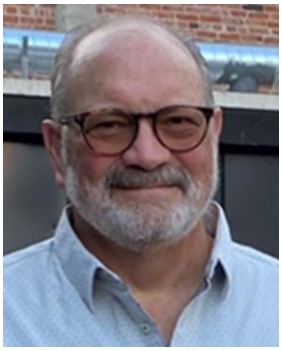

Tim Keller, Technology Chair: Tim, his wife and their two boys have been going to the club since moving into the neighborhood in 2017. The kids love swimming at the pool whenever possible and have been taking advantage of the club's tennis lessons. His background is in web development, and he has led the management of the Club's website.

Graham Martin Tennis/Pickleball Chair: Graham's family has been living in Oakton since 2015 and became full members in 2018. Their two daughters began on the swim team as Otter pups at the age of six and have previously participated in the dive team. The Martin's enjoy playing both tennis and pickleball together when they aren't tied up with other activities and sports. They're very active in the Oakton HS/Vienna sports community and enjoy spending time at OSRC as much as possible.

Pam Siminitz, Member At-Large: Pam has been a member for 30 years (former captain of the Women's Travel Tennis) and wants to ensure it remains a welcoming, high-quality environment for players of all levels and ages. She wants to focus on advocating balanced court access, improving facility maintenance and expanding social and competitive events that bring both the tennis and pickleball communities closer together. She brings collaborative mindset, strong communication skills, and a commitment to listening to all members' voices so we can make informed, positive improvements to the place we all care about.

Peter Molinaro, Immediate Past President
Peter and his wife Peggy have been OSRC members since 1995. Their daughters swam with the Otters for two seasons. He joined the Board in 2017 and served as tennis chair. In 2021 he was elected Club President and served 5 years, working on revisions to the Club's Operating Permit and pickleball noise mitigation. He remains on the Board in a non-voting capacity as Immediate Past President.

Meet the Staff

Kara Hayden, Business Manager, Kara is a Boston native who moved to Oakton in 2008. She has been employed part-time as the Business Manager since 2016. Kara and her family have enjoyed their rental membership since 2017. Her three boys have been active members of both the swim and dive teams. She enjoys volunteering to support both teams. Most recently, she served as the team's announcer for the home swim meets. Kara has participated in the women's tennis team and hopes to get more involved in tennis.

Accountant, Rachelle Knepper
Rachelle is originally from Florida and has been living in Oakton since 2013 with her husband Greg. They are the parents of two daughters, both of whom are in college. Both girls swam for the Otters for 9 summers where Rachelle served as team rep and team accountant. Rachelle has a Bachelor's Degree in Accounting and an MBA. She has been working as a senior accountant for Dominion Financial Consultants for the past 8 years.
